Carnival Cruise Lines Earns Five Awards from International Cruise Magazine

Carnival Cruise Lines has scooped the pool with five Porthole Cruise Magazine Readers' Choice Awards including top honours in the Best Value For Money category for the 16th consecutive year.

The other four gongs were Best Line for Short Cruises, Best Cruise Director - John Heald, Best Mexican Riviera Itineraries and Best Website.

Since the awards were established in 1999, the cruise line has earned an unprecedented 135 individual honours – the most of any cruise operator.

The international cruise magazine's annual awards are based on online and mail-in surveys with readers asked to rate their favourite cruise line in a variety of product and service-related categories.
