

CARNIVAL CRUISE LINE REVEALS ACTION-PACKED 2024-25 PROGRAM

With 76 sailings departing from Sydney and Brisbane, the program over-delivers on smiles and sunshine

SYDNEY, DECEMBER 15, 2022 – Offering a schedule packed with fun, Carnival Cruise Line today revealed its 2024-25 program; with 76 sailings departing from Sydney from June 2024 to June 2025 and Brisbane from September 2024 to March 2025. With two dedicated ships, Carnival Splendor and newly arrived Carnival Luminosa, the program delivers guests even more opportunities to experience a Carnival cruise, with sailings across Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific, visiting a total of 177 ports.

Departing from Sydney

Sailing onboard Carnival Splendor guests departing from Sydney will be spoiled for choice with 47 cruises, making 114 ports of call across just under a full year's worth of days at sea. On sale now, some of the program highlights include:

- South Pacific: 15 sailings to the South Pacific visiting a number of fabulous ports including Isle of Pines, Lifou and Mystery Island
- New Zealand: Three spectacular New Zealand sailings, making ports of call across both the North Island and South Island to Auckland, Wellington, Fiordland National Park and more
- Melbourne Cup: Carnival's famous Melbourne Cup cruise, featuring a six-night sailing filled with racing, fashion and fun

With a host of onboard activities to experience including the action-packed green and gold Carnival Waterworks™, Green Lightning thrill-slide as well as the luxurious Cloud 9 Spa and Serenity™ Retreat, guests onboard Carnival Splendor can discover something new every day to keep the fun rolling.

Departing from Brisbane:

The latest addition to Carnival Cruise Line's Australian fleet, Carnival Luminosa will once again return to the Sunshine State, providing Queenslanders with 29 sailings across 63 ports of call over 168 days. Program highlights for Queensland include:

- Papua New Guinea: An incredible 11-night sailing to Papua New Guinea departing 24 November 2024 visiting ports including Kiriwina, Rabaul and the Conflict Islands
- South Pacific: 13 visits across the South Pacific, taking Queenslanders to tropical destinations including Lifou, Mystery Island and Noumea
Queensland: a variety of 4 and 7-night cruises provide guests the chance to experience the best of the sunshine state, visiting idyllic stops such as Port Douglas, Cairns and Airlie Beach
- Fiji: An 11-night sailing to the tropical paradise of Fiji, visiting ports including Dravuni Island and Port Denarau
- Queensland: a variety of 4 and 7-night cruises provide guests the chance to experience the best of the sunshine state, visiting idyllic stops such as Port Douglas, Cairns and Airlie Beach

Carnival Luminosa's unique flavour will leave guests in awe as they explore her incredible offerings including a three-story theatre, a two-deck-high sliding sky dome over the ship's large pool deck, and one of the largest spas in the Carnival fleet.

On the program release, Carnival Cruise Line Vice President Kara Glamore said: "We wanted to ensure that our 2024-25 was well rounded, providing both Sydneysiders and Queenslanders with a range of destinations and experiences to choose from, both in our beautiful Australian backyard and abroad. This program delivers exactly that, and we can't wait to share more about some of the other exciting itineraries we have in the works."
